The Last Dialogue

Praise be to God, the Lord of the worlds.

A sperm was not created in vain.

And we made it to test the righteous and the disbelievers.

And We have prepared for the slaves of Our Lord a drink without any reward.

A spring of widespread abundance.

We drink it freely in spite of the food and the captive and the orphan.

And they fulfill their vows.

Indeed, We will guide him to the way.

He will not be ungrateful.

Indeed, We created the Countenance for the food and the captive and the orphan.

And We do not feed you except in order to test you with what We have created for you.

Indeed, We have created for you a thing to see.

So We made that We test him with a drop of sight and whether he be to the way guided or whether he be an ungrateful goat.

Indeed, We created the Countenance of Kafur.

So a thing was created for them and fear of a Blazing Fire and shackles.

Indeed, We will drink from it the righteous and disbelievers.

We will make it gush forth causing it to gush forth.

Indeed, We will test you with whether We will feed you with the food and the captive and the orphan and any reward from you.

And We desire only to recompense the merciful.
